RELEASE

ON RECEIPT

NINE FROM TEXAS, OKLAHOMA NAMED TO CENTER'S COMMITTEE ON RESOURCES

Nine businessmen, one of them from Oklahoma, were named Thursday as members of the Committee on Resources, Graduate Research Center of the Southwest, at Dallas.

Eight of the new members are Texans, from Dallas, Houston, and Tyler. Total membership of the committee was increased to 26, as the new appointments were announced by Dr. Lloyd V. Berkner, president of the Center.

The nine are: Malcolm K. Brachman, president, Northwest Oil Company, Dallas; Jerome K. Crossman, chairman of the board, Ryan Consolidated Petroleum Corp., Dallas; T. Carr Forrest, president, Forrest & Cotten, Inc., Dallas; W. H. Hunt, Hunt Oil Company, Dallas; Max Levine, chairman of the board, Foley's, Houston; Dean A. McGee, president, Kerr-McGee Oil Industries, Oklahoma City; John D. Murchison, partner, Murchison Brothers, Dallas; Ben H. Wooten, chairman of the board, Dallas Federal Savings and Loan Association, and Joseph Zeppa, president, Delta Drilling Company, Tyler.

Mr. McGee is a member of the Center's board of directors; all others are members of the Center's 77-member advisory council.

Chairman of the committee on resources is Stanley Marcus, and vice chairman is C. A. Tatum, Jr., both of Dallas.
