

Twelve UT-Dallas Student Athletes Win ASC All-Academic Honors

Richardson, TX (Nov. 25, 2003) - Twelve University of Texas at Dallas student athletes are among 311 American Southwest Conference All-Academic honorees for fall sports from the conference's 16 member schools.

The UTD recipients include seven men's soccer players, three women's soccer players and two cross country runners.

Student athletes are eligible for the honor if they letter in one of six fall sports, including soccer, football and volleyball; and have a cumulative grade point average of 3.0 or better.

The University of Texas at Dallas honorees were:

- Sona Goswami (cross country), a sophomore neuroscience major from Plano;
- Kia Jones (cross country), a sophomore speechpathology major from Katy;
- Jason Hirsch (men's soccer), a junior business/finance major from Plano;
- Alan Imberman (men's soccer), a senior business/finance major from Garland;
- Roger Maher (men's soccer), a senior American studies major from San Antonio;
- David Martin (men's soccer), a senior business major from Plano;
- Ali Morshedi (men's soccer), a junior electrical engineering major from Tomball;
- J.D. Pomposelli (men's soccer), a senior business major from The Colony;
- Petar Tomov (men's soccer), a junior mathematics major from Conroe;
- Jessica Demasi (women's soccer), a senior business major from La Porte;
- Jocelyn Kelly (women's soccer), a senior economics major from Austin; and,
- Jackee Smith (women's soccer), a senior business major from Bedford.

X X X