HARDY ART SHOW CONTINUES AT SOUTHWEST CENTER THROUGH MARCH

Portraits, "stills", and varied examples of the work of David Hardy, Dallas artist and teacher, will be exhibited through March in the Founders Building of the Southwest Center for Advanced Studies (formerly the Graduate Research Center of the Southwest).

Many of the Hardy paintings on display during the Dallas Flower and Garden Show through Sunday, March 19, will be exhibited also during the final two weeks of the artist's one-man show in the Founders Building.

The Founders Building can be reached from Exit 26 North Central Expressway, 2 1/2 miles west on Campbell Road, to 2400 North Armstrong Parkway.
