

MR. GEORGE I. HOCKENSMITH

Requiem Mass was said by Rev. Bennett C. McNulty at St. Peter's, Onley, on Saturday morning, November 3 at 10 a. m., for George I. Hockensmith.

Mr. Hockensmith suffered a heart attack and died on Wednesday, October 31, in Newark, N. J., at the age of 64 years.

The body was conveyed to the Shore by the Williams Funeral Home, where "The Rosary" was said on Friday evening, November 2, by Father McNulty.

Interment was in Fairview Lawn cemetery, Onancock.

The deceased was born and reared in Wooster, Ohio.

Active pallbearers were Walter Hickman, Clyde Nordstrom, Wade Long, Rooker Powers; John E. Kellam, Randy Kellam, Carl Ward, Lloyd Parrott.

Surviving, together with his wife, Mrs. Anna Hockensmith are the following children: Mrs. C. A. Smith, Nandua, and Mrs. John J. Moffett, also of Nandua; Mrs. Peter Ford, off Frankfort, Germany; Mrs. E. K. Gleason, Buffalo; Mrs. John Crawford, Dallas, Texas; George L. Hockensmith, Syracuse, and Harold W. Hockensmith, Houston, Texas; two sisters, Mrs. Harry Pickering, San Francisco, and Mrs. Ray Williamson, of San Francisco; also thirteen grandchildren, Arthur Smith, Terry Smith, Guy Smith, Susanne Steele, Patricia Steele, Sally Gleason, William Gleason, Judy Gleason, Theresa Ellen Gleason, Barbara Jean Gleason, Joan Hockensmith, Sandy Hockensmith, and Lorraine Hockensmith.

George Hockensmith

George I. Hockensmith, former Pittsburgh construction firm official, died suddenly Wednesday while working for a New York firm.

He was buried yesterday at the home of a daughter, in Painter, Va.

Mr. Hockensmith was general superintendent here for Booth and

Mr. Hockensmith Flinn, and left in 1936 to build airports in South America.

Recently, he had been superintendent of the Underpinning and Foundation Co., on the Newark section of the New Jersey Turnpike.

Surviving him are his widow, Mrs. Anna Hockensmith; two sons, George and Harold, and five daughters, Mrs. Clement Smith, Mrs. John J. Moffet, Mrs. A. G. Ford, Mrs. E. K. Gleason and Mrs. John A. Crawford.