

UT-Dallas Place 19 On Spring Academic All-Conference Teams

RICHARDSON, TX (May 11, 2004) - Nineteen student-athletes from the University of Texas at Dallas spring sports programs have been named to the 2004 American South-west Conference All-Academic team.

To qualify for ASC All-Academic honors, student-athletes must have lettered in the Spring 2004 season, be in at least their second year at their institution, and carry a career grade-point average (GPA) of 3.00 or better.

The student-athletes earning this honor from UT-Dallas were:

BASEBALL

Caleb Chandler (Sr., Business Administration, Tyler, TX)
Ryan Hellen (So., Business Administration, McKinney, TX)
Fielding Lewis (Jr., Undeclared, Katy, TX)
Rob Spencer (Jr., Business Administration, Rockwall, TX)
Joe Wollscheid (Sr., Statistics, Sachse, TX)

MEN'S GOLF

Peyton Cook (Jr., Government/Politics, Irving, TX)
Field Harrison (Sr., Interdisciplinary Studies, Richardson, TX)
Scott Maurer (Sr., Business, Dallas, TX)

WOMEN'S GOLF

Caroline Butler (Sr., Business, New Lenox, IL)

SOFTBALL

Sarah Arldt (So., Interdisciplinary Studies, Katy, TX)
Stephanie Herrera (So., Engineering, Freeport, TX)

MEN'S TENNIS

Kosta Dombrovskiy (Jr., Computer Science, Coppell, TX)
Kevin Durten (Sr., Public Affairs, Plano, TX)
Phong Le (So., Business Administration, Plano, TX)
Roby Martin (Jr., Computer Science, Waxahachie, TX)

WOMEN'S TENNIS

Cassidy Acuff (So., Business Administration, Dallas, TX)
Leslie Chen (Sr., Computer Science/Software Engineering, Dallas, TX)
Andrea Hidalgo (Sr., Business Administration, Garland, TX)
Katie Roberts-Hoffman (Sr., Electrical Engineering, Fort Collins, CO)

X X X