RELEASE ON RECEIPT

KRLD-TV WILL RUN "GRC SPECIAL" SATURDAY AFTERNOON

KRLD-TV will run a 30-minute special on the Graduate Research Center of the Southwest Saturday afternoon, April 9, at 2:30 P. M.

Narrated by Walter Evans of KRLD, the "GRC SPECIAL" will include an interview with Professor Dan Harris, of the Biology Division, stressing the past year's growth at the Center in the Division of Biology.

Other sequences will cover emphasis on graduate education in cooperation with many universities, including the TAGER group (the 7 universities and colleges in The Associate for Graduate Education and Research of North Texas). GRC President Gifford K. Johnson and TAGER Executive Director Jesse Hobson discussed programs in graduate education in special interviews during the Symposium on Regional Development of Graduate Education held in Dallas in mid-March KRLD made a similar report to viewers a year ago under the title "Brainpower on the Blacklands".
