UTD Women lose first game of the season

Richardson, TX--The UT-Dallas Women's Basketball team lost 79-61 to a tough Mary Hardin-Baylor team tonight. The Comets were down by only five at the half, but UMHB game out on fire, shooting 52% in the second half. UTD has averaged over 80 points in each of the team's games, but couldn't get the offense going against the Crusaders. The team shot just 36% from the field and recorded 18 turnovers in the loss. UMHB had five players in double figures and were guided by Sally Hickerson with 14 points. UTD continues to get strong performances from the freshmen class, as Ashley Johnson scored 13 points, while pulling down seven rebounds. Senior Katie Rostenbach added 10 point and grabbing five defensive rebounds.

The team travels to Paul Quinn College Monday for a 7:00 pm tip off. The Comets are now 5-1 on the season.
