RELEASE ON RECEIPT

GRC ART SHOW WILL BE JURIED COMPETITION, SPONSORED BY RICHARDSON CIVIC ART SOCIETY

The Richardson Civic Art Society will hold a juried competition, open to Dallas, Richardson, and area artists, with entries accepted from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturday, November 12, at the Main Visitors Entrance of the Founders Building of the Graduate Research Center of the Southwest.

First prize will be $50. Ribbons will be awarded to honorable-mention entries. Up to three entries may be submitted by each person, with an entry fee of $2 each or $5 for three. (The Richardson Civic Art Society is a nonprofit organization licensed with the state, and the fee covers cost of prize, ribbons, etc.)

For additional information, call (in the mornings only) ADams 5-7731, Mrs. Lee Thomas. Exhibits chairmen for the Society are Donna Adams and Georgie Woodbury. Judges for the competition are artists Mary Berry, Ann Cushing Gantz, and Betty Winn. Accepted entries will be displayed at the Founders Building November 14 through January 7. The Founders Building is just north of Campbell Road at 2400 North Armstrong Parkway, Richardson, 2-1/2 miles west of Exit 26, Central Expressway.
