LOST-FOUND

Lost or found something? The place to look or the place to take is NOT the circulation desk of McDermott Library.

Lost and Found is now located in the Police dispatch office, FN2.108.

Police dispatch and Central Data Acquisition System (CDAS) have moved to that location from Green Center.

The new office is a former private dining and conference room, straight in from the breezeway entrance to Founders North (past the entrance to the auditorium where Film Society movies are shown).

STAFF SERVICES

Typing, type composition and other functions of Staff Services will move "around the corner" in Green Center, as soon as changes are made in the former Police dispatch office.

The new entry area will be in the north-south hall, GR2.706, rather than into GR2.318.

COLD BATTERIES

Will it be a cold (and snowy or icy) day?

It has been more often than not during past, early, spring semesters. In addition to a need for careful driving, the most common problem is chilled and run-down auto batteries.

Police vehicles are equipped with quick connector terminals on front grilles, and jumper cables to help you get going. The number to call is 2331.

PRE-ADMISSIONS

Ann Parrett was appointed in mid-December as Director of the Office of Pre-Admissions Counseling.

The former Office of College Relations will continue on the lower level, McDermott Library, just across from Financial Aid.

Ann joined UT-Dallas in July, 1979, as Articulation Specialist in the former OCR. An M.A. graduate of oral communications at Baylor University, she served as coordinator of pre-admissions information prior to her new assignment.

Next deadlines for MERCURY

Four Indian films slated for January

Four films by Indian filmmaker Satyajit Ray are set to be shown in two double feature sessions Wednesday, Jan. 27 and Friday, Jan. 29 in Founders North Auditorium. Students can see these classics for only 50¢ each session.

Satyajit Ray's Apu Trilogy begins Jan. 27 at 7:30 p.m. with "Pather Panchali." (Song of the Road). Rural Bengal is "seen through the sensitive eyes of young Apu, whose innocence is reflected against the wisdom of his aged aunt," according to News and Information Services' releases.

At 9:30 p.m. "Aparajito" (The Unvanquished) tells of the family's travels to Benares on the Ganges where Apu, now an adolescent, begins his education. The music for both of these films was composed and is performed by Ravi Shankar.

The conclusion of the Apu Trilogy will be shown at 7:30 p.m. Jan. 29. In "World of Apu," Apu (Soumitra Chatterjee), is wed to 14 year old Aparna (Sharmila Tagore) and is a writer in Calcutta.

A very different theme from the Apu Trilogy pervades Ray's first color film "Kachenjungha." Here Ray attempts "a dissection of the Indian upper class, warped by the long British colonization."

All four films were made in India and are rated G. "Pather Panchali," made in 1954, lasts one hour and 52 minutes; "Aparajito," 1956, one hour and 48 minutes, "World of Apu," 1959 (no time available); "Kachenjungha," one hour and 42 minutes.

Special display of aviation paintings

Original paintings of 12 fighter aircraft and a racer, which gained fame during the world wars and between, will be displayed in McDermott Library's Special Collections, History of Aviation Collection, third floor McDermott Library, through Feb. 19.

Most of the paintings, the work of Arlington artist Raymond Waddey, have been autographed by the aces and top pilots who flew the planes.

The display, open to the public at no charge, will be open from 9 a.m. to noon, and from 1 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday. For information call 690-2570.
