

THE CLAM MADE A FACE, a Canadian play based on tales of the Kwakiuti tribe of Northwest Coastal Indians of British Columbia, was a big hit with the youngsters who participated in it at McDermott Library Nov. 29 and Dec. 6. Helping out with the production was Mike Mooring, Student Congress vice-president. (Photo by Wade Jones)